This is an excellent opportunity to acquire this three bedroom modern apartment which has been specifically designed, fitted and furnished for either owner occupation or holiday letting.

This property has been successfully let through www.cottages.com and has received a "Customers Choice" award reflecting the high standard and the appreciation from those staying in the property.

It achieves a net rental income between low to high season of £500 to £900 per week.

There are significant advance bookings that can be transferred to any buyer if desired.

The current owners make significant use of the property themselves and for their family so there is ample scope to increase occupancy levels.

The property also sometimes has longer term lets to tradesmen and contractors working in the area. This is particularly beneficial outside the main tourist season.

Overhead expenses are low as income is received net of commission from cottages.com and the only recurring expenses are gas, electricity and council tax.

Ideally suited to either an owner occupier or an investor looking to manage the property themselves or those who want to employ a cleaner and run the business more remotely.
