

This is a superb opportunity to acquire a very well established award winning and highly profitable bakery business.

The business is only offered for sale due to the current owners' wish to retire.

It has an experienced management team and over 80 production and retail staff in place.

Current owners only provides general management.

Prime freehold premises included in the sale price comprising spacious bakery, café and retail outlets.

Annual net turnover in excess of £3,200,000 with an excellent gross profit margin of around 70%.

Freehold property & non-cash net assets total £475,000.

This is a consistently profitable business which operates on a night/early shift production and day shift retail basis with significant potential for further growth.

Further increase in sales possible through the opening of additional retail sites, more direct sales to customers via social media which the current owners have not fully exploited and also further wholesale trade.

Asset and goodwill sale of the business and freehold properties at offers over £1,200,000.
